

Job Opportunity: Laboratory Technician

If you are:

1. qualified electrical / electronics technician
2. strong administrative, organising and meticulous record keeping skills
3. a self-starting, passionate and positive individual
4. enjoying interacting with and supporting customers
5. computer literate with good knowledge of MS Office products
6. fluent in English
7. based in Cape Town
8. metrologist qualification and experience is preferred
9. OMICRON product knowledge and experience is preferred
10. experience in implementation of quality systems i.e. ISO 9001 / 17025 is advantageous

Your key responsibilities will be:

1. run and manage the calibration and repair laboratory for all OMICRON equipment
2. maintain the quality management system of Alectrix (Pty) Ltd
3. keep service records up to date for all calibration and repairs on equipment
4. manage the receiving, checking and dispatching of equipment
5. provide support and assistance to the customer support team / back office

We offer:

1. a dynamic, modern and flexible working environment
2. working within a small, competent and motivated team
3. work with OMICRON, the world leading brand of power system testing and maintenance products
4. work for Alectrix (Pty) Ltd, a B-BBEE Level 1 company, known for excellence, knowledge and experience
5. all required training, including training at OMICRON headquarters in Austria, will be provided
6. attractive salary package with annual bonus

Interested? Please submit your CV and supporting information to jobs@alectrix.co.za by 31 March 2024.